Description

Description Rawlings & Associates PLLC seeks aggressive, results-oriented attorney to provide legal support to The Rawlings Company LLC, the national leader in delivering recovery services to the health care industry. This position will handle recovery-related issues on a nationwide basis, perform research, handle claims recovery files, and provide legal support to assigned individuals.

Requirements

- Accomplishment-driven plaintiff's attorney with experience at a personal-injury practice that includes bench and jury trials along with appeals in state and federal courts, arbitration and mediation. 1st or 2nd chair experience as a trial lawyer is preferred
- Proven track record of high performance and creative solution-based legal strategies
- Development of intelligent and innovative approaches to increase client recoveries
- Ability to provide timely and appropriate legal advice to Subrogation Recovery Analysts
- Monitor, report and communicate applicable new court decisions, statutes, regulations, litigation or proposed laws that could impact the business
- Work closely with clients to achieve client business goals
- The ability to work well with team members
- Work independently and diligently to meet deadlines

- Strong work ethic
- Minimum of 5 years of plaintiff's personal injury, automotive or insurance subrogation, litigation, and /or Workers' Compensation
- Excellent negotiation skills along with superior spoken and written communication skills
- Results oriented with the ability to work effectively in a fast-paced environment
- Law degree from an ABA accredited school. Solid academics (top 20% and/or law review) preferred
- License to practice law in California

This is a challenging opportunity in a non-traditional legal setting. We offer a competitive compensation package and excellent benefits. For more information about Rawlings & Associates PLLC and The Rawlings Company LLC, visit our web page at <http://www.rawlingsgroup.com/>.
